LOOKS LIKE MOVIE WAR

There's bound to be a merry war over an ordinance introduced by Ald. Ellis Geiger last night, after a conference with Maje Funkhouser, by which Chicago would have two classes of movies, one for the kids, the other for the grown-ups.

Geiger would have the city issue two permits, one which would bar children under 18 years old from entering theaters, wherein are shown pictures meant for "adults only."

It was referred to the judiciary committee.
